NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

VESTA STRATEGIES, LLC,
Plaintiff,
v.
ROBERT E. ESTUPINIAN, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 07-cv-06216-JW (BLF)

ORDER DENYING ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION TO RELATE CASES

Re: Dkt. No. 199

Before the Court is a Motion to Consider Whether Cases Should Be Related brought by Plaintiff Thomas A. Dillon, as court-appointed receiver for Plaintiff Vesta Strategies, LLC. The Motion asks whether the following four cases should be related to a newly-filed matter, Dillon v. Murphy & Hourihane (“Dillon”), Case No. 5:14-cv-1908-HRL:

1. Vesta Strategies, LLC v. Estupinian et al., Case No. 5:07-cv-06216-JW (“Vesta v. Estupinian”).
2. USA v. Terzakis, et al., Case No. 5:09-cv-01212-DLJ (“USA v. Terzakis”).
3. United States Fire Insurance Company v. Samuel Henka, Case No. 5:09-cv-2388-JW (the “U.S. Fire Coverage Case”).
4. Dillon v. Continental Casualty Company, Case No. 5:01-5238-EJD (the “Continental Coverage Case”).

After reviewing the Plaintiff’s Administrative Motion and the relevant statutory law, the Court hereby DENIES the Motion.

A motion to relate cases is governed by Civil Local Rule 3-12, which states that:

An action is related to another action when:

- (1) The actions concern substantially the same parties, property, transaction, or event; and
- (2) It appears likely that there will be an unduly burdensome duplication of labor and expense or conflicting results if the cases are conducted before different judges.

1 Both prongs of the Local Rule 3-12 test must be met for the relation of cases to be
2 appropriate.

3 In 2010, Judge James Ware denied a Motion to Relate three of these cases with one
4 another: Vesta v. Estupinian, Case No. 07-cv-06216, with USA v. Terzakis, Case No. 09-cv-01212,
5 and the U.S. Fire Coverage Case, Case No. 09-cv-02388. (ECF Docket No. 198). These three
6 cases are now closed – Vesta v. Estupinian resulted in a default judgment against Defendant, USA
7 v. Terzakis resulted in a guilty plea by Defendant, who is currently incarcerated, and U.S. Fire
8 Coverage resulted in judgment on the pleadings against several parties and a stipulated dismissal
9 as to U.S. Fire Insurance Company. Consistent with Judge Ware’s 2010 Order, the Court finds that
10 since these actions are now closed, it is unlikely that an unduly burdensome duplication of labor
11 and expense, or conflicting results, is likely to apply if the Dillon case proceeds in front of a
12 different judge.

13 The only other case before the Court for relation is the Continental Coverage Case, which
14 is currently pending on appeal before the Ninth Circuit, after Judge Edward J. Davila granted
15 Defendant’s Motion for Summary Judgment. This case concerns a suit by Dillon as Plaintiff
16 against Continental Casualty Company in relation to insurance policies that covered the theft or
17 exchange of funds by Vesta’s owners. Judge Davila found that enforcement of these policies
18 violated California public policy, specifically Insurance Code § 533.

19 Though the Dillon case also involves the same Plaintiff, and actions taken by the owners,
20 partners, and employees of Vesta, it is a legal malpractice case, alleging that Vesta’s attorneys at 21 the Murphy & Hourihane law firm committed negligence in rescinding insurance coverage issued
22 by U.S. Fire Insurance Company. The legal claims and Defendants differ in both cases – one
23 Defendant is an insurer, the other a law firm. There is no indication that the suits arise out of the 24 same transaction or event, as the Dillon malpractice action concerns insurance rescission from a
25 different insurance company than is being sued in the Continental Coverage Case. Thus, the cases
26 do not meet the requirements of Local Rule 3-12(1). Even if the cases did meet the Rule 3-12(1)
27 prong, however, it is unlikely that there would be an “unduly burdensome duplication of labor” as
28 required under Rule 3-12(2), merely due to the cases having the same plaintiff and generally

1 arising from the actions taken by Vesta's owners and employees.

2 Accordingly, the Court DENIES the Plaintiff's Motion to Consider Whether Cases Should 3 Be Related.

4 IT IS SO ORDERED.
